

Race & Equity: How Cities Can Strengthen Community Relationships

League of CA Cities City Manager
Conference, Indian Wells

February 3, 2016

 INSTITUTE FOR
LOCAL GOVERNMENT

Institute for Local Government (ILG)

non-profit research and education affiliate of:

California Special Districts Association
Districts Stronger Together

www.ca-ilg.org

Session Agenda

3:30	Welcome, Interactive Exercise
3:45	Advancing Racial Equity: The Role of Government, Julie Nelson, Government Alliance on Race & Equity
4:05	Divided Communities Project, Susan Carpenter, Mediator
4:25	Sharing Lessons Learned, Jacqueline A. Seabrooks, Chief of Police, Santa Monica Police Department
4:45	Q/A, Call to Action
5:00	Adjourn

Brief Exercise: Your Experience

Why is this topic of race & equity important to you?

- Individually
- Share with your neighbor

Ca-ilg.org

Educate

Stay up to date on the latest ideas, publications and resources.

Cap and Trade Resource Center

Find out more about cap and trade! The center includes an overview, the funding available to local governments and each of the current cap and trade funds.

Read more »

Understanding the Basics of Public Service Ethics Laws

Information to help California local officials understand the state's various ethics laws. Topics include: personal financial gains laws, perk issues, gift laws, transparency laws and fair process laws.

Read more »

Tips on how to better engage your residents

Looking for tips on how to engage residents? ILG's public engagement basics offers ideas on how to successfully involve your community in the decision-making process and the benefits of doing so.

Read more »

Select a Subject ▼

Ca-ilg.org

League of California Cities > Inclusive Public Engagement

- Getting Started
- ETHICS & TRANSPARENCY
- Healthy Communities, Land Use and Planning
- Inclusive Public Engagement
 - The Basics of Public Engagement
 - Increasing Outreach
 - Immigrant Engagement and Integration
 - Partnering with Community Based Organizations
 - Engaging Clergy and Congregations
 - Assessing Public Engagement
 - Case Stories
- Leadership and Governance
- New to Public Service
- Recycling
- Technology

The Basics of Public Engagement

Information and resources about the "basics" of public engagement benefits, principles, related topics to help local and regional agencies successfully involve residents and other decision-making.

Read more »

Going Beyond the Usual Participants

Research, resources and case stories to help ensure that participation in public engagement reflect the demographics of your community.

This includes information about ways to work with community partners to engage a broad community, including youth and immigrant residents, as well as how to work more effectively with congregations.

Read more »

Immigrant Engagement and Integration

Resources and case stories to help local officials in California successfully engage and integrate immigrants into the civic and public life of their communities. Also see information about permanent residents to achieve U.S. citizenship, and strategies for local officials to support...

Q/A

www.ca-ilg.org

Contact Information

- Sarah Rubin, ILG Public Engagement Program
916.658.8263 | srubin@ca-ilg.org
- Julie Nelson, Director, Government Alliance on Race and Equity
206.816.5104 | jnelson@thecsi.org
- Susan Carpenter, Mediator
951.784.7307 | scarpenter3@att.net
- Jacqueline A. Seabrooks, Chief of Police, City of Santa Monica
310.458.8401 | Jacqueline.Seabrooks@smgov.net

www.ca-ilg.org

Thank You

www.ca-ilg.org

