MCLE Self-Study Credit Available for Reading *Practicing Ethics

Through a cooperative arrangement with the Institute for Local Government, minimum continuing legal education (MCLE) self-study credit is available for reading segments of the League's publication: Practicing Ethics: A Handbook for Municipal Lawyers. The handbook is available in hard copy from Publications, or the electronic version from the city attorneys web page. The Institute for Local Government is the 501(c)(3) arm of the League of California Cities.

To claim MCLE credit, read the chapters indicated on the self-study test (for example, chapters 1 through 3 for self-study test #1), and take the corresponding true-false test. Each test is worth up to one hour of MCLE self-study credit for ethics. There are three tests (attached) for a possible total of up to three hours of MCLE self-study credit for ethics.

Send the test(s), completed form and payment, $30 per test or $75 for all three tests, to:

Institute for Local Government
1400 K Street, Suite 205
Sacramento, CA 95814
Attn: MCLE Ethics Tests

The Institute will check your answers and send you the results, along with explanations for the correct answers and a self-study MCLE certificate for one hour of MCLE ethics credit for each test submitted.

As an approved MCLE provider, the League of California Cities certifies that this activity conforms to the standards for approved education activities prescribed by the rules and regulations of the State Bar of California governing minimum continuing education.
