Employee Relations Legislative Webinar

Join the League of California Cities Personnel and Employee Relations Department as it launches an exciting new webinar series. In the weeks ahead, League staff will provide updates on proposed legislation relevant to human resources professionals winding its way through the Legislature.

This webinar will provide members with an opportunity to offer their expert feedback about the content and potential impact of pending bills on their cities and their profession. This is the second installment in the legislative webinar series. This webinar will discuss which bills are moving through the legislative process and how you can be proactive.
