

Contra Costa County

- Meetings include county administrator and assistants.
- Meetings are held in the city of Walnut Creek city hall at no charge.
- Meetings include meals and the collection of an annual payment for costs of a monthly luncheon and informal business meetings.
- Has an annual “no agenda” holiday meeting in December; retired public managers are also invited.
- Minutes of meetings are not kept.
- Agendas for meetings are distributed a few days before meeting.
- Meetings are scheduled to occur one week after Contra Costa Mayors Conference.
- Managers, from time to time, serve as the research arm of the Mayors Conference as assigned.
- Outside speakers tend to be representatives of the Congestion Management Authority, County Librarian, or other County officials.
- Meeting discussions are candid.
- No bylaws, rules of procedure or officers other than chair and past chair.
- League of Ca Cities area representative and Range Rider are invited to every meeting.
- CCMF President or representative attends meeting once a year.
- At various times, the area group has had a contract with a lobbyist.