Offering Business Resources to the Greater City of Camarillo

Over 3000 books can be found in our collection on the second floor of the Camarillo Public Library

Research competitors or possible sales prospects using our industry research tools

Live seminars, workshops, business expos, with great networking opportunities at every event

Access to e-learning resources like Lynda.com available for continual learning and skills development for professionals

Research investments using valuable tools like Morningstar or Valueline

On demand access to many popular e-audio and e-books available through apps on your phone, like Overdrive or Libby

Text RFBC to 22828 to join our email newsletter