

Scott Reiber is the Chief Tax Attorney in the San Francisco City Attorney's Office, where he serves as general counsel to the Office of the Treasurer and Tax Collector and Office of the Assessor-Recorder, oversees litigation involving the City's taxes, and leads a team of attorneys that advises the City on tax matters and drafts the City's tax legislation. Prior to joining the San Francisco City Attorney's Office, Scott practiced State & Local Tax law at Morrison & Foerster LLP.