

EDUCATIONAL OPPORTUNITIES AND RESOURCES OF INTEREST TO CITY MANAGERS INCLUDE –

Educational Conferences - Each year, more than 5,000 elected officials and municipal staff members attend League training seminars and conferences, making the League the primary source for education and professional development for California city officials.

Both the City Managers Department Meeting and the Annual Conference & Expo provide innovative educational sessions as well as the ideal environment for participants to network and share experiences with your peers.

A calendar of all League educational programs, including the City Managers Department Meeting and the Annual Conference, can be found at www.cacities.org/events.

Webinars - The League offers educational seminars in a webinar format in order to provide a cost effective and convenient educational platform to cities with budget and/or time constraints. Webinar schedules can also be found on the calendar page on the League's website.

Webinars are also a way for the League to provide you with information on hot button and late-breaking issues in between conferences.

Written Materials - City Managers Department Meeting and Annual Conference materials from various sessions are available for download from the League's website.

The League of California Cities Education Department offers many learning opportunities in a variety of formats to address the needs of city officials and staff at all phases of their professional career.

Education = Future

INVOLVEMENT OPPORTUNITIES:

Speakers - City Managers are encouraged to share their knowledge and expertise with their colleagues across the state by submitting proposals for consideration to speak at League conferences or educational programs.

Writers - The League's award-winning Western City magazine also routinely features articles on various topics written by knowledgeable city officials.

Social Media - Social media provides an outlet for up to date news regarding upcoming conferences and webinars as well as highlights of a variety of other educational resources at your disposal.
